Located on Spain's Costa Blanca, Calpe is a charming coastal town known for its impressive Peñón de Ifach, a huge limestone rock rising from the sea. The town offers beautiful sandy beaches, crystal clear waters, and a picturesque fishing harbour. Calpe has a mix of modern and historic attractions, including Roman ruins and the old town with narrow streets and traditional Spanish architecture. The city has a wide range of facilities, such as restaurants, shops, marinas, and various water sports options.
